

Article VIII, Section 1, is hereby amended by adding the following language at the end:

“No residence will be used for Vacation Rental. A Vacation Rental is herein defined as:

1. Rented, leased, or assigned for tenancies for any period of less than one hundred eighty (180) continuous days duration.
2. Made available for occupancy, possession, sleeping accommodation or lodging for one or more persons, for valuable consideration, or for any period of less than one hundred eighty (180) continuous days duration.”

(October 29, 2002)